About WTA

The WTA is the global leader in women's professional sport with more than 2,500 players representing 92 nations, competing for over US $130 million in prize money.

The 2017 WTA competitive season includes 57 events and four Grand slams in 34 countries.

From 21-29 October 2018, the world's top 8 Singles players and top 8 Doubles teams will return to Singapore Sports Hub to compete in the fourth edition of the BNP Paribas WTA Finals Singapore presented by SC Global for a prize purse of US$7 million.

The WTA Finals is the most prestigious tournament in the year-long WTA season. Only players who qualify will be able to compete at this crown jewel season finale

Road to Singapore

The Road to Singapore charts the qualification journey of the top 8 Singles players and Doubles teams as they earn their spot at the WTA Finals.

Follow the Road through 34 countries, 57 events and four Grand Slams where every serve, point and match matters.

In the Singles race, each player counts her top 16 tournament results, of which the results from the four Grand Slams, the four Premier Mandatory tournaments, and the best results from two Premier 5 tournaments must be included.

In the Doubles race, each team counts their top 11 results earned as a team. Unlike the Singles, this combination does not need to include results from any specific tournament.
